

Chiang's Peace Offer Rejected By Commies

Reds Begin Artillery Fire To Break Lull

Shanghai, Thursday, Jan. 6.—(AP)—Chinese Communists began shelling government positions around Tientsin today after the Reds scornfully rejected Chiang Kai-Shek's peace offer.

The artillery fire broke a two-week lull which had settled on China's farflung battlefronts amid a rising clamor for peace.

Chinese newspapers in Shanghai reported that the attack near Tientsin seemed to be mounting in intensity.

A red broadcast heard in Shanghai late Wednesday night had warned of the attack, declaring that "a general assault on besieged Peiping, Tientsin and Tangku (seaport for Tientsin) is imminent."

From Peiping, Associated Press correspondent Spencer Moser reported nothing more exciting than "a few night raids" on the city.

He added, however, that small-scale clashes were reported on Peiping's outskirts.

Another indication that the lull at Peiping was not only continuing, but expected to last for some time, was an announcement in Shanghai that a commercial air service to that ancient capital would be resumed.

Meanwhile, government officials in Nanking were reported jacking again for possible flight southward.

They were convinced that U. S. Communist answer to President Chiang's peace offer, made on his terms, would be an emphatic "No."

(The communist radio heard at San Francisco broke its five-day silence on the peace overtures with two tough-talking broadcasts.

Peiping Threatened

(One threatened to attack historic Peiping at once unless it surrendered. The other said final victory was near and would mean "the complete destruction of the Kung-tang (government) reactionaries and the expulsion of the forces of American imperialism aggression from China.")

The broadcast from North China by the communist new China News Agency, as heard by the newspaper Sin Wan Pao in Nanking, said President Chiang's New Year's Day peace-on-his-own terms speech was "delaying action."

The Chinese communists, it added, "intend to maintain their original plan to fight to the finish."

(The radio in a second broadcast on the North China situation promised "general assaults" on Peiping, Tientsin and Tangku—the three government islands of resistance—unless they gave up now.

(The broadcast said Gen. Fu Tso-Yi, commander in the north, was a "war criminal" but could atone by surrendering. He was told his life and possessions would be guaranteed if he gave up promptly.

Little Faith in Peace Bid

In Nanking, a reliable Chinese source said there was this evidence that Chiang and other top leaders had little faith in any peace bid:

1. That Chiang personally ordered four Nanking factories removed.

2. That the executive Yuan (cabinet) directed its ministries to pack certain archives and valuable equipment for shipment south.

Associated Press correspondent Harold K. Mills in Nanking said many are convinced Chiang will move to Formosa or to Canton on the south coast to continue fighting whatever communist-dominated coalition government may set up in Nanking.

One report lacking verification was that Gen. Pai Chung-Hsi, commander in central China, had ordered his troops on the line north of Nanking to return to Hankow, his headquarters.

This report, said Mills, maintained that Chiang was dissatisfied with Chiang's peace message and indicated he might be getting ready for a separate settlement with the communists.

TRUCK OVERTURNS.

BURNS; DRIVER KILLED

Mt. Carmel, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—T. D. Finley, 51, Dallas Tex. burned to death today when the automobile transport truck he was driving overturned and caught fire after crashing through a guard rail on State Highway 1 just west of Mt. Carmel.

Finley was driving one of five trucks in a convoy of the Alexander Motor Transport company of Dallas.

Identification was made by the other drivers. All of the trucks were empty. The gasoline tank on Finley's truck was smashed in the accident resulting in the fire.

DEATH RATE DOWN

Chicago, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Death of Chicago mothers in childbirth dropped below one per 1,000 live birth in 1948 for the first year in the city's history.

The board of health reported the maternal death rate was 6 per 1,000 live births. The infant death rate was 28.1 per 1,000 live births.

Report Israel Accepts U.N. Cease Fire Order

Tel Aviv, Israel, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Israeli troops knifed 30 miles into Egypt and then withdrew, a government spokesman said tonight. At the same time a private source reported the Jews had accepted the United Nations Security Council's cease fire order.

The private informant, who has been usually reliable, predicted fighting between Jews and Egyptians in the Negev desert of southern Palestine will end soon. It was understood Israel's acceptance of the cease-fire will be sent to the Security Council tomorrow.

An Israeli foreign office spokesman who refused to be quoted by name said Jewish troops, which entered Egypt in a three-day battle, had withdrawn according to plan after killing or wounding several hundred Egyptians and taking several hundred more prisoner.

He said the Israeli force had reached El Arish, a strong Egyptian military base including airfields and other installations about 9 miles from the Suez Canal. The spokesman said Egyptian material taken or destroyed included several bren gun carriers, artillery pieces, gasoline and oil stocks and other stores.

(In Cairo the Egyptian war ministry said tonight Egyptian forces repulsed Israeli attacks last night and this morning on Egyptian positions near Rafa. The enemy suffered considerable losses in lives and armored cars, the ministry said.)

"There was never at any time any design on the part of Israel to occupy Egyptian territory," the spokesman declared. He said the penetration was made by troops "in hot pursuit of the fleeing enemy."

He added that "Israel has no claims to the territory of other countries. It has but one desire—the cessation of hostilities and negotiations for a permanent peace."

The spokesman denounced what he called an "anti-Israeli diplomatic campaign that the British government has been conducting in Washington." He repeated last night's charge by a government spokesman concerning "military preparations which the British government is known to be making in the Middle East."

Killing Frost Hits California; Loss Nears $20 Million

Los Angeles, Jan. 5.—(AP)—A killing frost, the worst in southern California in 35 years, brought losses estimated today at $20,000,000.

The nation's pocketbooks quickly began to feel the chill as citrus prices started climbing.

One section alone, San Bernardino county, which accounts for about a fourth of California's citrus production, estimated an $8,000,000 loss.

And County Farm Adviser Albert Salter, who said a third of the crop may be gone, added that growers had spent $2,500,000 in two nights of heating orchards with burning oil.

Citrus returns more than $100,000,000 to California growers each year.

Manager Walter F. Swartz of the Southern California Floral Association said it is problematical what can be saved from Los Angeles county's annual $13,500,000 cut flower industry.

Suggests Illinois Make Own Cement For Road Building

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Senator John W. Fribley (D-Pa.) suggested today that the state make its own cement for road building. He said this would reduce highway construction costs.

Fribley made the suggestion in a letter to a legislative commission working on a long range road program for presentation to the 1949 General Assembly.

"The state undoubtedly is the biggest user of cement in the Middle West," Fribley wrote. "Undoubtedly substantial savings on the cost of building and maintaining hard roads would accrue if the state produced its own cement."

The Democratic senator said he was "amazed at what seems to be the excessive cost" of keeping up and adding to the Illinois highway network.

Fribley said "some black marketing of cement" has resulted from a recent U. S. supreme court ruling. The ruling had the effect of increasing freight charges on many cement purchases.

Marines Prepare To Leave China

Tsingtao, China, Thursday, Jan. 6.—(AP)—The U. S. marines today were reported preparing to leave their barracks at Shantung University, despite official denials that their lease had been cancelled.

T. C. Jao, editor of the English language Tsingtao People's Herald, reported that "the university is proceeding with preparations to take over on Jan. 25."

"While both navy and marine were reticent on preparations for evacuation of shore billets, observers here felt the impending change reflected changing United States policy," Jao added.

"Reports here," Jao said, "were that some marines will remain at here but others will be transferred to Guam."

EARTH TREMORS

Rome, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Dispatches to Rome newspapers said earth tremors shook Sardinia last night. The tremors were strongest in the northwest part of the island, where some small houses were damaged. No casualties were reported.

Owls range in size from tiny elf owls about the size of a sparrow, to horn and eagle owls which are two feet or more in length.

Owls are found throughout the world, from the Arctic regions to tropic lands, and more than 300 kinds are known.

Illinois Assembly Opens Six Months Business Session

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—The Illinois legislature opened for business today and got under way from the outgoing Republican governor that the Democrats will take over Monday with $113,000,000 in the cash box.

The 66th General Assembly organized for a six months stand by formally electing a new batch of leaders.

Then the legislators recessed until next Monday, when Gov.-elect Adlai E. Stevenson and other new Democratic officers will be inaugurated. But before they quit, the Republican majority in the Senate started throwing its weight around.

Despite Democratic howls of protests, the Republicans stripped from the new Democratic lieutenant governor virtually all the powers held by the outgoing Republican lieutenant governor. The new Democrat, Sherwood Dixon, probably won't do much more than preside over the Senate.

Several Republican senators, possibly trying to beat Stevenson to the draw, introduced bills to put the state police under civil service and out of the patronage rot.

Rescue 343 People Stranded In Town By 3 Day Blizzard

Denver, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Aerial and ground mercy missions brought relief today to thousands of travelers stranded for three days in blizzard-battered Colorado and Wyoming.

The greatest rescue was at Rockport, Colo., nine miles south of the Wyoming line. Since Sunday 343 bus passengers and motorists had huddled in the village's lone tavern. Soup and coffee was their principal nourishment during the time. Rescuers said nearly all the storm refugees were suffering from colds and undernourishment.

As for his message as a whole, there was the widest range of comment.

Senator Lucas of Illinois, floor leader for Senate Democrats, said the program was "one designed to meet the needs of the great majority in this country."

Senator McGrath (R-I), Democratic national chairman, said, "I thought the speech completely kept faith with Mr. Truman's campaign and the party platform."

Rep. McCormack (Mass.), House Democratic floor leader, called it "a great message—sound and constructive."

Speaker Sam Rayburn (T-Tex.) said the address would make a "splendid appeal" to the people of the United States and the world. He conceded there will be a division of opinion on some of the domestic issues.

Many Republicans were critical. Rep. Hugh Scott, Jr., (Pa.), GOP national chairman, said "Mr. Truman is rolling high dice with the people's money. If Mr. Truman has his way, this will be known as the grabbag and pay-off congress."

Senator Bridges (R-N.H.) tagged the proposals "in the line of a super new deal program which means bigger government, greater spending and higher taxes."

Senator Taft (Ohio), chairman of the Republican policy committee, said he agreed with and will support some of the President's recommendations. But if all of them are adopted, he said, "we shall have a totalitarian federal government in Washington."

Taft said he agreed that it is essential to balance the budget, but he also expressed the belief that spending can be trimmed so that no tax increase will be needed.

Chairman Doughton (D-N.C.) of the tax-writing House Ways and Means committee, said:

"It looks like he has left considerable room for the committees of congress to work out details of the tax bill. The country will not look very favorably on increased taxes until the people are convinced we are not wasting money."

Reaction to Mr. Truman's proposal for repeal of the Taft-Hartley labor law and substituting the Wagner act with amendments for it likewise found bitter opposition and warm support. Many legislators expressed the opinion that there should be extensive study before writing new legislation.

It's Beginning To Get Monotonous

Detroit, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Three months ago Patrolman Leonard Schmidt and Robert Risley were called to Michigan avenue and Grand boulevard on a traffic accident.

They took Albert Previle, 58, to receiving hospital with a broken leg.

Tuesday night Schmidt and Risley again were called to Michigan and the Boulevard where a man with a cane had walked into the side of a truck. Again they took Previle to receiving hospital, this time with a broken arm.

Pekin, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Fire today damaged a two story building housing a garage on the ground floor and four apartments on the second floor. All the city's fire fighting equipment was called into play to combat the flames. Origin of the blaze was not determined immediately.

Gov. Green Denies Clemency To Nine

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 5.—(AP)—Governor Green today denied executive clemency petitions of nine persons, including four convicted of murder.

The four are Oscar Easley, Union county; Lucia O'Neill, St. Clair county; Lucia Dimonte and Ernest Martin, both of Cook county.

Robert Ingersoll, American atheist, was the son of a minister.

Truman Asks Vast Economic, Social Legislative Program

Applause And Angry Cries Meet Address

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Democrats in control of the new Congress generally applauded and promised support today for most of the program President Truman laid down in his state of the Union message.

Southern Democrats provided an exception when they sat silent through his renewed proposals for civil rights laws. After his speech many openly pledged a fight to the last ditch against such laws as anti-lynch, anti-poll tax and a fair employment practices program.

On the Republican side, GOP leaders for the most part appeared aghast in the reactions to the amount of money they said would be required to carry out the president's proposed extension of government in social and economic fields.

But Republicans were not alone in asking, "where is the money coming from?" Many members of both parties in the House and Senate took a wait-and-see attitude on Mr. Truman's suggestion for a $4,000,000,000 in new taxes to carry out his broad program. Many top Democrats were among those cool or lukewarm to proposals for higher taxes.

As for his message as a whole, there was the widest range of comment. Senator Lucas of Illinois, floor leader for Senate Democrats, said the program was "one designed to meet the needs of the great majority in this country."

Demos Predict Budget $4 Billion Will Be $41.9 Billion To Pay Costs

Washington, Jan. 5.—(AP)—Key Democrats predicted today that President Truman's new budget will call for the biggest peacetime outlay in U. S. history—$41,900,000,000 or about $283 for each citizen.

This tops the $39,500,000,000 figure for the current fiscal year but is far below the wartime mark of $98,700,000,000.

Details of the administration's financial plans for the year beginning July 1 will not be known until Mr. Truman outlines them Monday. However, he gave top legislative leaders a budget preview at the White House shortly before telling a joint session of congress about the state of the union.

Rep. McCormack (D-Mass.), the new house floor leader, told reporters after the White House conference:

"The budget is high, but absolutely tight. The requests are in line with demands and are absolutely essential."

Mr. Truman told the joint session that the government will need $4,000,000,000 in new taxes to help meet the mounting federal costs. He said that most of the money should come from additional corporate taxes, and a portion from revised estate and gift levies. The President's direct recommendation for a tax increase was coupled with a proposal for health insurance and other social security expansions that some members estimated would mean another $6,000,000,000—or a total increase of $10,000,000,000 in general and security levies.

There wasn't any applause as Mr. Truman read his tax recommendations. As for the budget, the lawmakers who attended the White House session said that slightly more than $15,000,000,000 of the new outlays would be for military costs, including stockpiling of strategic materials and the first year cost of starting a universal military training program. The proposed military spending would be some $3,000,000,000 over the current expenditures.

NATURE IN THE ROUGH

If a grizzly bear lumbers out of a thicket into your path, don't be too startled. Morgan county is reverting to nature fast. There are people in the city, and people on farms, but from evidence that has come to light recently, we humans have more company than we thought—wolves, foxes, raccoons, groundhogs, or just about any kind of varmint you can name.

On the first day the court house was open after a bounty on foxes became effective, 15 foxes were carried into the county clerk's office where $3 checks were made out in payment for each animal. Wolves have become such pests in some farming neighborhoods that one of those savage marauders is no longer a curiosity.

Fur buyers are doing a brisk business as trappers come in with fine pelts. The short-haired fur commands highest prices, with mink and muskrats rated as the prize catch. Longer haired animals such as raccoon, opossum, skunk and fox are not especially valuable on the market at this time, but they are with us anyway. Sportsmen swear that there are almost as many foxes as rabbits running around the hills and hollows this season.

There was a day when Arthur Thatcher, well known Jacksonville newspaper man, held copyright on all Central Illinois nature stories. Thatcher has pounded out columns of copy about beavers that were introduced to a foster home along the banks of Macoupin creek; about bobcats that roamed the wilds of Rosedale township, frightening the natives with their squalls; about catches of finely furred pelts brought in by trappers of his section. That was all in the past—we envy Mr. Thatcher no longer. Now we can trade punch for punch, story for story, as long as our wolves and foxes last.

Where did the exciting sport of hunting wolves in a jeep originate? Right out east of Jacksonville, north of Orleans station. When they want to shoot a wolf or two the boys take down their guns, step on the starter, and away they go! We felt sort of "ornery" when we wrote that story about the wolf hunt in a jeep. By all traditional rights it belonged to Thatcher, because he is a specialist along that line. Then a devilish thought struck us—why not become Arthur's foremost rival. We have the wolves, foxes, woods, fields and streams. To date we haven't been able to scrape up a bobcat or beaver, but here's hoping.

Now Here Is What We Mean

The dean of all Illinois nature writers is still at it. We opened up the morning correspondence from Jerseyville (Mr. Thatcher's the Journal Courier correspondent there) and here is what we found:

Jerseyville, Ill.—"William Loelke, who has been trapping foxes this winter, reported an unusual experience in catching a fox. Several days ago, he approached one of his sets and found a fox in the trap.

"He killed the animal and upon examining the body discovered that the animal had a coil of wire about its body, just above the hind quarters. The wire had cut through the animal's hide and was imbedded in the flesh. "Loelke stated he believed the animal must have gotten the coil of wire around its body when it was young and as it was passing through a pile of rubbish or might have picked it up in some barn yard. At any rate the fox grew into the band of wire about its body until it was reaching a point where it would eventually have caused the animal's death in the future.

"Loelke and his brothers reported that they now have twenty-nine foxes for the current season, just three under their catch of last year.

"Loelke reported that in four of the foxes he skinned this season, he found a number of shot. Farmers or hunters had blasted the foxes with shotguns, but at too long a range to knock them down and out."

The Second Time
Is The Best

By HAL BOYLE

New York.—(AP)—The fat man finished his meal in the small restaurant, then stood stolidly in line at the cashier's counter to pay his check.

He forked a crumpled $5 from his pocket and tossed it to the woman who was a skinny, tired woman of middle age—the wife of the restaurant owner.

"Dollar ten," she said in a flat monotone. She counted some bills, and the fat man absently crumpled them into his paw.

"Good night," she said. "Night," he answered, leaving off the adjective. It is thus that hurried people unconsciously criticize life.

Change For $20, Not $5
Outside, the fat man counted the money. With kindly excitement he realized that the woman had given him change for a $20 bill instead of a $5.

"Well, well," he said, pleased. He put his hand in his pocket and walked away slowly, fingering the bills and jingling the coins.

"Let's see," he thought. "I can buy three shirts, some socks, some—." He came to a bar and went in. He started to order his usual beer—the beer that explained his belly—and then changed his mind and called for a highball.

He bought a fifteen-cent cigar and strolled over and put a nickel in the juke box. High ball in hand, cigar in mouth, he stood and listened to old time tunes about somebody saying he couldn't give some body anything else but love, baby.

And right in the middle of the fat man's pleasure a face came into his mind—the face of a mousey woman cashier with glaring dyed hair, a weary face too scant of flesh to fill the wrinkles under her eyes.

"Oh, hell," he grumbled. "To The End Of The Line" Three minutes later the door of the restaurant opened and in came the fat man. The tables were almost deserted, but there was still a line at the counter.

The fat man stomped over to the cashier. Half-angrily, half-defensively, he began:

"You—"
But the cashier said:

"You'll have to go to the end of the line that."

"I like that," said the fat man. But he went. When his turn came, he began again:

"I was here a little while ago, and you made a mistake in the change."

The cashier stiffened immediately.

"I'm sorry, you're supposed to count the change before leaving the counter," she said.

"That's right, Mac," he said. "Once you leave the counter—it's your funeral."

"Dumb and Blind, Too"
The fat man indignantly slapped the wadded bills and coins on the glass counter.

"What I'm trying to tell you is you gave me change for a $20 instead of a $5."

The husband's face hardened as he turned to his wife.

"How the devil did you do that?" "Honey," she said, and fear came into her eyes.

"How could you mistake a $20 for a $5," said the husband. "It's bad enough to be dumb. Do you have to be blind, too?"

"Honey," she pleaded. Neither of them paid any attention to the fat man. He hesitated a moment, then went back out the door.

"I wonder what the Good Samaritan would have done if he came to a second guy in a ditch," he groaned. "Would he have helped him, too?"

But he really knew the answer.

WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

9 Foxes Killed In Cass Roundup

Virginia—Between 200 and 300 men participated in the fox drives held in the Sangamon Valley area Sunday, and W. C. Blohm one of the sponsors said nine foxes—all reds—were killed and "several got away."

The five drives lasted all day and included territory in several directions from the Brick school, where the men, all armed with shotguns, assembled at 9 a. m.

Members of the Home Bureau served lunch at noon. The ladies were given the foxes, each of which will bring the women $2 in county bounty, and whatever can be realized in the sale of the pelts.

William Rossi of Virginia, who sponsored drives for foxes near Virginia, assisted Mr. Blohm in organizing the Sangamon Valley drives. It was not announced whether any other drives will be held in this section this winter.

Mr. Blohm said that a few rabbits were seen on the drives, but not a wolf was reported sighted.

Foxes are reported to have been abundant in the section for months and their depredations have resulted in the loss of chickens and other fowl for many farmers.

JAPANESE LIKE FARM COOPERATIVES

Tokyo — (AP) — Japanese farmers seem to like the idea of running their own cooperatives. Occupation orders reformed the old government-controlled, compulsory co-ops. Membership is now voluntary. More than 7,250,000 farmers joined 28,000 co-ops and 10,500 mutual relief associations in the first year under the occupation plan.

Dr. John Crouch Ends Pastorate At Carrollton

Carrollton—Dr. John W. Crouch, who has been pastor of the local Baptist church for the past 12 years, has resigned his pastorate, his resignation to take effect February 1. Dr. Crouch plans to retire from the ministry as far as accepting the pastorate of a church is concerned. He and Mrs. Crouch will go to West Columbia, Texas, to make their home near that of Dr. Crouch's brother, B. N. Crouch.

During Dr. Crouch's successful twelve years with the local church, a debt of approximately $12,000 was paid on the church building, the church was repaired and redecorated at an approximate cost of $5,000 and repairs were also made on the parsonage. This year a new Wurlitzer electric organ was installed and paid for and the church has raised $2,700 for the World Mission Crusade over and above the regular missionary giving.

Also during the twelve years more than 200 new members were received into the church, more than half of them by baptism. Dr. Crouch is leaving the church free of all debt and with a balance in all the treasuries of the various departments of the church and Sunday school.

Mrs. Crouch has also been active during the twelve years, serving most successfully as the superintendent of the primary department of the Sunday school and being active in the Missionary society and the Sunday school classes of the church school. Dr. Crouch accepted the call to the local church from a five year pas-

JACKSONVILLE SAVINGS DISTRIBUTES NOVEL SAVINGS BOOK

Children will find it difficult to resist the attractive, colorful, entertaining 12-page coin-saver book called "IT IS FUN TO SAVE" which is being distributed by the Jacksonville Savings and Loan Association to create widespread interest in systematic saving among children. Colorfully illustrated with circus clowns, animals and rhymes, it holds $5.00 in coins. With a running commentary of human-interest verse, this novel book teaches the relative value of nickels, dimes and quarters by placing the coins in spaces especially provided for them.

Illustrated cardboard pages hold the money in their spaces skillfully arranged among the capering figures. When the book is filled, simply remove the money and bring it to the Jacksonville Savings and Loan Association and open an account in the child's name... or add the money to your present account... then you can start the fun all over again.

We suggest you get your copies today while the supply lasts. You will want to order one of these books for each child you know. A nominal charge of 35 cents is made for each book to cover cost and handling. Everyone is invited to get this remarkable book.

The sea lion is a sissy... but practical. He wears a fur coat when he goes in swimming.

Your car engine isn't a sissy, but it needs extra winter-time protection. That's why practical motorists change to winter-grade Conoco Nth Motor Oil and an OIL-PLATED engine for extra-protection.

They know Nth oil contains a special added ingredient that fastens extra lubricant so closely to cylinder walls it won't all drain down... even overnight. That's why OIL-PLATING means extra protection.

Women Can Ride To Town Free If Taking Rummage

Jacksonville housewives may ride to the business district on city buses without charge during an hour and 20 minute period Thursday morning if they indicate to the drivers that they are carrying materials for the rummage and rag drive.

Col. John Taylor, representing the Optimist club, which is staging the rummage and rag collection in co-operation with the Salvation Army, said the bus company will furnish free transportation to women between 9:50 a. m. and 11:10 a. m. as they take materials to the public square. The free transportation during that period is to the business district, and does not include a return trip.

Women who take rummage articles and rags to the business district will find a Salvation Army truck parked at North Main street and the square to receive the materials.

School children are gathering materials for the drive and these will be picked up by trucks at the schools Thursday.

Proceeds of the drive will be used by the Optimist club and Salvation Army in promoting youth welfare and education programs.

Host Club, Virginia Win In Virginia Meet, Semi-Finals Tonight

Games Tonight
Virginia vs. Athens, 7:45 p.m.
Chambersburg vs. Chandlerville,
8:30 p.m.

Favorites took the toll of the underdogs in the Virginia tourney last night as Athens and the host club, Virginia, knocked off Pleasant Plains and Bath in first round bouts. Athens had very little trouble in whipping Pleasant Plains in the initial encounter, while the hosts suffered many anxious moments before they finally conquered Bath by a 53 to 47 count in the second engagement.

Athens, favored to win the tourney, let the Pleasant Plains crowd ride in the first quarter, and only led by a 16 to 14 margin after the initial eight minutes of play. They turned on the heat in the second half and jumped into a 31 to 18 lead at the intermission. With ten men entering the scoring column, they piled it on in the last half to win going away from the underdog Pleasant Plains crew in the last half by a 61 to 36 tally.

Virginia Tops Bath

Bath fought the host quint on even terms the first half in the second contest, and even held a 2 point edge in the 26-24 halftime score. However, Ed Rogers started hitting for Virginia in the second half, and the host five pulled into a 40 to 35 lead going into the last frame. They managed to keep that edge throughout the last canno and win by a 53 to 47 count.

1948 Sports Year Was Chock-Full Of Surprises

New York, Jan. 5—(AP)—The year 1948 was chock-full of sports surprises. It was the year the Boston Braves won their first pennant in 34 seasons and the Cleveland Indians won their first championship in 28 campaigns.

It was the year Satchel Paige, a legendary figure in the negro leagues for more than 20 years, finally got his long-awaited chance in the major leagues. It was the year Babe Ruth died.

The biggest single surprise, according to the experts participating in the year-end poll of the Associated Press, was the spine-tingling 21-13 tie between Army's and Navy's football teams. Rated a close second was the pulse-pounding 14-14 deadlock between Notre Dame and Southern California.

Of the 96 sports writers who voted, 32 selected the Army-Navy game and 17 the Notre Dame-Southern California contest. The service classic also received 21 second place votes and 13 thirds for a total of 151 points. The Irish-Trojan game got 27 seconds and 16 thirds for 121 points.

In all, 29 surprises were listed. The strange managerial maneuvers of last July which resulted in the release of Mel Ott and Ben Chapman, the switch of Leo Durocher from the Dodgers to the New York Giants, the return of Burt Shotton to Brooklyn and the naming of Eddie Sawyer to head the Philadelphia Phils got third billing with seven firsts, 10 seconds and six thirds for 47 points.

Six selectors named the venerable Connie Mack and his first division Philadelphia Athletics as the No. 1 surprise. The same number regarded Harrison Dillard's failure to qualify in the Olympic hurdles as the biggest stunner. Dillard picked up 19 seconds and 11 thirds to five and six by the A's to win fourth place with 45 points. The Athletics nabbed the fifth spot with 34.

Thompson Will Sell Eagles For 250 Thousand Dollars

Philadelphia, Jan. 5—(AP)—Owner Alex Thompson agreed today to sell his champion Philadelphia Eagles of the National Football league if he gets at least $250,000.

Thompson said he is anxious to sell—but only if the price is right. He claims he lost money on the Eagles the last two seasons despite winning teams.

General Manager Charley Ewart has been given 60 days to sell the club—at Thompson's price and if Thompson gives a final okay.

"My figure is no less than $250,000 and no higher than $300,000," Thompson said at his New York office. The difference will be settled on the basis of new equipment we've purchased and ticket sales for next season."

So far, say Lex, there have been few offers.

"No one has approached me, personally, with an offer to buy the Eagles."

Mt. Sterling has been rated the top team in the PMBC tourney which will get under way at ISD the 25th of this month. The Green Hornets had rolled over Chambersburg Meredosa, and Chapin in loop contests prior to this selection, and had received no set-backs in PMBC competition.

However, Paul Stroud's Rockets from Routt, rated second in this coming match, kinda upset the dopest's' apperant, when they tappered the Brown county quint 44 to 40 at Our Saviour's Tuesday night. To further complicate the picture, Spike Wilson's bunch of ISD hoopers were seeded to the third spot on the list, and they had edged Routt 33 to 32 in one of the initial loop meles of the season.

We're going to side-track all this, and name little 'ole Chambersburg the team to bump off in the meet. Ranking fourth in the pairings, Eldon Atwood's cagers are sporting a 7-1 record to date, with their most impressive win marked against Virginia, whom they tamped 70 to 51. Their only defeat was suffered in the hands of Mt. Sterling by a 41-36 count.

After rating the first four teams, the conference coaches drew the remaining teams, Meredosa, Chapin, Perry and Bluffs to select opponents. It's paired off with Mr. Sterling meeting Perry, Routt tangling with Bluffs. ISD bumping into Meredosa, and Chambersburg playing Chapin in the first round contests.

Al Miller's Blueboys are biting off a big chunk tonight when they journey to Wesleyan for a central conference cage fracas. . . . Wesleyan has been beaten only by DePaul this season, the team that marked the U. of I.'s single defeat this winter. Wesleyan lost to DePaul by a three point margin, while DePaul dropped the University by an 11 tally edge.

The Hilltoppers came home Saturday night for a match with Quincy college Raiders. The two teams have met twice this year and split the contests. Quincy won their first encounter 64 to 56 at Quincy, and the locals came back to drop the Raiders 65 to 46 in the finals of the IC holiday tournament.

Spike Wilson's Tiger quint is favored over Chapin in a PMBC contest here Friday night, while the Crimsos travel to Beardstown and Routt goes to Franklin to put all the local prep teams in action. It'll be the '49 hardwood debut for the Wilson and Kraushaar coached lads, while the Stroudmen have already wet their feet for the year when they clashed with Mt. Sterling last Tuesday.

White Hall Cops Win From Hillview By 60 To 31 Count

White Hall — The White Hall Maroons dumped the Hillview quint by a 60 to 31 tally on the Hillview boards last night.

Milnes, hot-shooting Maroon forward dropped in 25 tallies to lead scoring for the evening, while McCaherty was high for Hillview with 10 points.

The White Hall seconds took the preliminary contest from the Hillview reserves by a 48 to 27 margin. The box score:

Bob Mathias Wins Sullivan Trophy As Best U.S. Athlete

New York, Jan. 5—(AP)—Bob Mathias, the 17-year-old marvel from Tulare, Calif., who won the Olympic decathlon championship at London, has been voted the James E. Sullivan Memorial trophy as the outstanding U. S. amateur athlete for 1948.

The award, most coveted in the world of amateur sport, has been given annually since 1930 to the amateur "who, by performance, example and good influence, did most to advance the cause of good sportsmanship during the year."

Mathias, now a student at Kiski Preparatory School at Salisbury, Pa., was given 201 first place votes out of 325 ballots cast by sports leaders throughout the country.

Harrison Dillard, the great negro sprinter and hurdler who won the Olympic 100 meters at London, placed second to Mathias with 119 first place votes. Dillard also ran second last year, when the award went to Jack Kelly, the Philadelphia sculler.

St. Louis U. Billikins Defeat Bradley U. Five By 57-44 Count

St. Louis, Jan. 5—(AP)—The St. Louis University Billikins broke loose in the second half to win their first Missouri Valley conference game of the season—defeating Bradley University 57 to 44 tonight.

Easy Ed Macauley, as usual, led the St. Louis attack with 19 points, but the victory wasn't an easy one for the Bills by any means.

Despite an early lead over the Peoria, Ill., school, St. Louis fell behind toward the end of the first period and only a free throw and a foul by Macauley gave the Bills a halftime tie at 25-25.

The victory kept the Bills, N.I.T. champions last season and Sugar Bowl champs during the holidays, with an untarnished record so far this season. It was their eighth triumph.

St. Louis started hitting the basket in the final half—at one time holding a 16-point margin.

Bradley scoring was spread out with Paul Unruh holding 10 points for top man and Gene Melchiorre second with nine.

David Prince Five Swamps Virginia By 56 To 5 Count

Merle Wade's David Prince cage crew completely outclassed the Virginia graders in taking a 56 to 5 rout from the Cass county boys at Virginia last night.

The DP first string played the first eight minutes, and rolled up a 19 to 0 count. Wade inserted his second string at this point, and they swept on to an easy win over the smaller Virginia aggregation.

David Prince also took the preliminary by a 44 to 10 tally. This Friday night the Taylorville grade school quint will invade the David Prince crew at their Jacksonville headquarters. The preliminary will get underway at 7 p.m., with the main bout scheduled for 8. This will be the only night game the DP lads play this month, Wade reports.

Arrest Four Men In College Cage Bribe Attempt

New York, Jan. 5—(AP)—A New York county grand jury today began an investigation of an alleged attempt by four men to "fix" a college basketball game with a $1,000 bribe.

The jury heard its first witness less than 20 hours after the game, between George Washington university of Washington, D. C. and Manhattan College of New York, was played in Madison Square Garden.

The witness was David Shapiro of Brooklyn, 25-year-old co-captain of the George Washington team to whom the $1,000 allegedly was offered. Authorities said he co-operated with them wholeheartedly in a four-month investigation which exposed the attempted gambling coup.

The four men accused of the "fix" attempt were arrested yesterday just before the game and are held in $50,000 bail each.

District Attorney Frank S. Hogan, praising Shapiro's "honesty and courage," said the player came to the district attorney's office last September and said he had been contacted by men who wanted him to "fix" games.

The player, a World War Two veteran with four battle stars, followed instructions of the law enforcement officials in his dealings with the men from then on, Hogan said.

Claude Monet's painting "Impressions" was exhibited in 1863 in a special exhibition of paintings turned down by the French official salon. It marked an open revolt against the Salon's hostility to all originality and experiments in art.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Jan. 5—(AP)—Hog prices recovered another $1.00 a hundred pounds today to reach a top of $23.00, the same peak level made last week. Cattle were steady to 50 cents up and sheep strong to 25 cents more.

Most good and choice butcher hogs sold from $19.00 to $22.75 and hogs were $15.00 to $18.00. Receipts on sale of 8,000 were 5,000 below trade anticipations and were quickly cleared out.

Loadlots of choice steers ranged from $31.50 to $34.50, the day's top, and good to low-choice offerings went to the scales for $25.00 to $30.50. Choice heifers topped at $30.00 and medium to low-choice kinds at $22.00 to $27.00. Beef cows topped at $20.50, sausage bulls at $24.25, and vealers at $33.00.

Best lambs made $25.25 and ewes $10.50.

Salable receipts were 8,000 hogs, 7,500 cattle, 500 calves and 2,500 sheep.

New York Stock Market

New York, Jan. 5—(AP)—The president's state of the union message touched off a mild and short-lived rally in the stock market today.

Gains ranged from fractions to a little more than a point for issues affected, mostly in the steel, rail and automobile divisions.

Turnover picked up a little as the president delivered his message but activity was still nothing to get excited about.

Wall street generally rated the outline of administration policy as better than expected from a business viewpoint.

In demand were U. S. Steel, Republic Steel, National Steel, Chrysler, Studebaker, Montgomery Ward, R. Schmidt 2, Lehman 2, and Edwards. Bradley—Ricci, Grover 2, P. Unruh 5, Behnke, Hummerickhouse 2, Melchiorre 2, and Garber.

Actual presentation of the president's views, according to brokerage quarters, removed one of the market's most nagging uncertainties. The general level of prices had gradually sagged near the 1948-49 low as today approached.

DROP IN SOYBEAN PRICE EXTENDS TO OTHER GRAINS

Chicago, Jan. 5—(AP)—The grain market today took President Truman's state-of-the-union speech, including a request for authority to control speculation on commodity exchanges, without any undue excitement.

A selling flurry developed during the speech with soybeans getting the brunt of the liquidation. Prices dropped about 3 cents in beans. Other commodities were influenced by this weakness, giving up nearly all their early gains extending to around a cent in wheat and corn.

But the selling flurry didn't last long. Renewed buying came into the pits. Led by deferred deliveries of both wheat and corn most cereals again pushed ahead of yesterday's close. Soybeans lagged on the rally.

The president did not mention whether or not he favored changing the present farm support program to a straight 90 per cent of parity basis. At present, a sliding support scale of between 60 and 90 per cent is scheduled to go into effect next year.

Receipts were: wheat 3 cars, corn 102, oats 36, soybeans 7. Wheat was unchanged to 2 higher, May $2.27 1/2, corn was 1-1/2 higher, May $1.49 1/2, oats were 1-1/2 higher, May 78 1/2, rye was 1/2 lower, May $1.72, soybeans were 1-1/2 higher, March $2.61 1/2-$2.61, and lard was 15 to 28 cents a hundred pounds higher, January $18.12.

Blueboys Entrain For Wesleyan Today, Bob Grove Sidelined

Al Miller reports that Bob Grove, may be on the inactive list of the Blueboy cage squad as his quint entrains for Bloomington this afternoon for a tussle with a strong Wesleyan crew. The regular guard is suffering from an infected foot, and is currently under doctor's care and orders. A last minute inspection today will decide whether the shifty defensive man will be used in tonight's fracas.

Blueboys Morale High

Despite this set-back, the hilltoppers are in a fine fettle for the encounter. Coach Miller reports the team's morale is unusually high, as this conference fray with the Wesleyan outfit which is currently the Central loop favorite. Barney Vilk or Dave Billings is slated to replace Grove in the local line-up.

Without reflecting overconfidence, the Blueboy mentor reports that his lads are determined to give this initial conference tussle everything they have, and bring home a win.

The very strong Wesleyan aggregation has bowed to only one team, DePaul this season, while copping 6 hoop meles. In way of comparative scores, DePaul bumped off Wesleyan by a 3 point margin, and also knocked off Dike Eddleman and the boys from the University of Illinois by an 11 point edge earlier in the season. Wesleyan, a large school, and still growing, is definitely going big-time in collegiate sports.

Beware of Romance
By Roberto Courtland

THE STORY: When sixteen-year-old Merry Carson learns that her dashing father, Kin, has asked her selfish mother, Susan, for a divorce, her whole world turns topsy-turvy. Kin leaves home and Susan goes to pieces. Aunt Jane comes to look after things. The doctor advises a change for Susan and they take her to St. Vincent's, an island resort. Here Susan buys a new dress from Carter Bagby. Carter treats her gallantly and Susan begins to perk up. Merry goes to spend a couple of days with her father in their home town. She sees Tip Kennedy again but tells him she still doesn't believe in marriage, after what happened to her parents. She is shocked when her father says he is going to be married again in August. That evening her old gang gives a party for her. Tip says she will spend his vacation in St. Vincent's.

XVII
"NICE party," asked Kin when they met for breakfast next morning.

"Frantic," she assured him happily. "And some of the kids are coming to St. Vincent's for the summer. Tip's coming down for a couple of weeks."

He nodded. "I suppose, chick, you know that the house here has been decided to you, so that if ever you want to come back here to live—"

"No, I didn't know. Dad. But I won't ever want to come back."

"Oh, well, you don't have to decide right away," Kin cut in wearily. "You'll be legally of age in another year; then you can do whatever you want to with it."

The long day's drive to Jacksonville was one she would never forget, and because they had dawdled a bit, enjoying the trip, they were late reaching their destination.

There was only time for Kin to check her in at the Windsor, snatch a bite to eat, and then at her insistence she drove him to the airport. She stood and watched until the great silver-winged plane had vanished into the darkening sky before she turned away, with a forlorn feeling, to drive back to town. But she was too tired and too sleepy to lie long awake, and in the morning, the eighty-mile drive to St. Vincent was fun.

She arrived at lunch-time. Susan greeted her warmly, with only a slight trace of reproach, and with a frank and eager interest in all the news from Marshallville. Aunt Jane, eager to be off on her usual afternoon fishing trip, paused only long enough to admire the new car, to hear that Kin was well, and seemed happy. A fact which Susan greeted with a little sniff...

BY late June the Marshallville families who owned or rented cottages at St. Vincent's for the two or three hot months had moved in and Merry was caught up in their round of activities.

Later, looking back on it, she knew that had they not come and caught her up in their own youthful fun and good times, she would not have been taken so completely by surprise by the blow that struck her in September. She had grown so accustomed to having Carter Bagby around that she was scarcely conscious of him; or of the fact that his visits were more frequent; or that he seemed to be assuming an almost proprietary interest in Cielito Lindo and all that went on therein.

The coming of the Marshallville crowd that descended on the island in June brought a great many of Susan's old friends: women with whom she had been intimate back home.

Merry, seeing her mother absorbed and apparently happy, plunged headlong into her own affairs with her own friends: the few young people who lived the year round on the island, and the old ones from home. And by the time Tip arrived for his two weeks' vacation, she was almost able to persuade herself that she had never really left Marshallville at all.

Tip, lean and tall and still the most disturbing young male she had ever known, was gay and casual with her. At first she had been a little afraid that he would want to assert his claim upon her—a claim that had been accepted back in Marshallville, so that any time she received an invitation to a party the invitation was proffered as "and Tip, of course." Or the other way around.

But Tip greeted her cheerfully, told her she was prettier than ever, seemed to enjoy her company quite as much as ever—but no more. So that when the vacation was over and he had gone, she had a sort of lost, bereft feeling that no amount of self-argument, or attempted rationalization could quite wipe out.

KIN's marriage to Melissa Stafford took place early in August at Melissa's place in Connecticut. It was wire-service news and there were photographs in the papers all over the country, for Lissa's wealth and social position, added to the fact that Kin was an increasingly important man in national and international industrial affairs, rated that. Of course for Marshallville it was front-page stuff, and it was on the front page of the Marshallville Sunday Record that Susan and Merry discovered the news.

Susan studied the picture for a long moment while Merry all but held her breath. Lissa was almost as tall as Kin; even in the blurred newspaper picture there was a regal air about her tall slenderness, in a filmy light frock and a drooping hat, her arms filled with flowers.

"So he's done it at last," said Susan. "Well, I must say I can't see much about her for a man to make a fool of himself about. She looks rather common to me."

And she dropped the paper as though its touch were contaminating, as Merry and Aunt Jane exchanged a swift glance and Merry's heart went back to its accustomed place.

Mrs. Clarissa Hills, well known Morgan county woman who was seriously injured when struck by an automobile on Sept. 20, died at 1 p.m. Wednesday at Passavant hospital, where she had been a patient since that date. She was 81 years old.

She was born near Lynnville on Sept. 21, 1869, a daughter of John R. and Rebecca Tuke Watson.

On Jan. 6, 1891, she was united in marriage to J. H. Hills of Lynnville in a ceremony performed in Jacksonville. The young couple moved to a farm near Franklin and remained in that community until they moved to Jacksonville in 1940.

'Prosperous Farm Life' Advocated By Truman

By Ovid A. Martin
Washington Jan. 5 —(P)—President Truman called today for an "improved" farm program aimed at feeding consumers well at all times and at keeping farmers permanently prosperous.

The goals of such a program, he said, should be abundant farm production and "parity"—sometimes called "equality"—of income for agriculture.

In his message to congress on the state of the union, Mr. Truman said such a program should include:

- (1) Government farm price supports.
- (2) Measures for increasing food consumption by low income groups and hence providing farmers with bigger markets.
- (3) Restoration of government authority to provide storage for crops.

Extension of modern conveniences and services to farms. "One of the country's 'shortcomings,'" he said, is an "uncertain future" for farmers.

"The standards of living on the farm should be just as good as anywhere else," he declared.

In re-endorsing the policy of government support of farm prices, Mr. Truman sidestepped a sharp farm bloc controversy as to how far such aid should go.

One group wants the present wartime price support of 90 per cent of parity for major crops continued indefinitely. It is led by the chairmen of the senate and house agriculture committees and has strong backing in some of the major farm organizations.

Another wants lower support, starting next year. It fears high support will bring surpluses and rigid controls. It generally backs a price support set-up authorized in a long-range farm law passed by the Republican-controlled 80th congress. This group is headed by the American Farm Bureau federation and the National Grange.

Three Aims Listed
In his message today, the president said merely that support should be used to do three things—to prevent farm prices declines out of line with other prices; to encourage changes in farm output to meet consumer demands, and to promote good use of the land.

The administration is expected to outline its views on price support in greater detail when Secretary of Agriculture Brannan is called before congressional committees to testify on farm legislation. That may be a month or more away.

In urging restoration of government authority to provide crop storage facilities, the president touched upon an issue in the recent campaign. The last congress repealed that authority. Democrats charged that this action crippled price support programs for grains.

Young Schone and a rabbit, Clyde McClood, were hunting rabbits Sunday afternoon near their homes. Schone called to McClood to shoot at a rabbit he had spotted, and McClood answered, "I can't, I fell in a corn field and my gun is full of mud."

In McClood's effort to unload the gun it was accidentally discharged, one shot entering the left leg of Schone.

Debate Rages On Labor Bill

Demos Claim GOP Drags Out Hearings

Washington, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Democrats accused Republicans tonight of dragging out the Senate labor committee's hearings on a new labor bill. The Republicans fired back that the Democrats are treating the legislation as "a political measure."

The latest flare-up came when Chairman Elbert Thomas (D-Utah) drily observed that the hearings seemed "to be moving along in the course of human events."

Senator Murray (D-Mont.) said that if the February 10 deadline for completing the hearings is to be met, the questioning will have to be speeded up or "it is going to be impossible" for many scheduled witnesses to testify.

Senator Donnell (R-Mo.) noted that the decision to end the hearings next Thursday had been made by an 8-5 party-line vote in the committee, and that there is nothing to prevent an extension.

As tempers rose, Senator Aiken (R-Vt.) told the Democrats they apparently were determined to judge the legislation on its "political merits" and not to regard it "in any degree as a social and economic measure."

Senator Douglas (D-Ill.) had chided the Republican members of the committee for taking "90 to 95 per cent" of today's time in questioning one witness.

"In all kindness," he said, "it would like to request that, in questioning future witnesses, they observe a certain degree of self-restraint. He added the Republicans should not lend themselves to the appearance of dragging out these hearings unnecessarily."

On Stand All Day
Ludwig Teller, a New York lawyer, had been on the witness stand all day. He finally was dismissed when the committee recessed for dinner.

While Teller was in the chair, Senator Pepper (D-Fla.) got into a sarcastic exchange with Senator Taft (R-Ohio). Pepper referred to a Taft news conference yesterday when the Ohioan predicted that congress will retain two-thirds of the Taft-Hartley labor law. He accused Taft of being "inaccurate and erroneous."

Taft cut in sharply to deny he had said it.

Taft reiterated that the final result of congress' work on a new labor law would amount to an amendment of the Taft-Hartley act and not repeal. Democrats have called for repeal and reenactment of the Wagner act in amended form. Can't Accept Implied Powers

Senator Morse (R-Ore.) expressed fear that some president some time might install a dictatorship under Democratic leadership if the people accept implied powers not spelled out by the constitution or voted by congress.

That was a reference to a dispute in progress for days, over whether congress should write into the proposed labor law specified power for the president to seek injunctions in national emergency strikes. The Taft-Hartley law has that feature but the new bill presented on behalf of President Truman doesn't. Attorney General Tom Clark said the president has such general power without a specified provision in the law.

Teller volunteered some praise for the Taft-Hartley act. He represents a number of employers in their labor relations.

T-H Law Fair Step
He told the committee he considers the Taft-Hartley law "a fair, forward step in the complicated evolution of labor." He characterized the administration bill as a "long step backward," and said it "completely overlooks" protection of the public and management.

The witnesses declared the proposed new law doesn't protect workers against the unions and union leaders, and fails to assure fair collective bargaining.

He also testified that the International Typographical Union has been "gradually strangling the printing and publishing industry" with the closed shop and regulation of apprentices. He said he thought the ITU "could have survived just as well with the union shop, but it chose to combat the law."

CHAPIN CHURCH CLASS
HAS FEBRUARY MEET
The Loyal Gleaner class of the Chapin Christian church held its February meeting Tuesday at the church with Mrs. Sue Baker as hostess.

Mrs. Baker read the scripture lesson. Mrs. Inez Bonds offered prayer. Mrs. Adelaide Bronckhouse read a paper on Isaiah. Members voted to contribute to the Week of Compassion fund and to hold a silent auction quarterly. A social hour followed the business.

The March meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Nina Neill.

Minimum Wage Bill Raises Obstacles In House Action

Washington, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Two obstacles to smooth House action on administration plans to raise the national minimum wage became apparent today.

They were:
1. An administration proposal that the federal wage-hour law be broadened to cover "activities affecting commerce."

2. A provision that workers on large farms be included under minimum wage sections of the law for the first time. A Democratic member said he understood this section was urged by labor unions and that the administration does not favor it.

Republican members of the House labor committee said all nine minority members will vote against both of these provisions, and one Republican said at least three Democrats would join them.

Since one Democratic member (Rep. Powell of New York) is ill and not expected to be back in Washington for several weeks, Chairman Lesinski (D-Mich.) would have to hold all his other Democratic colleagues strictly in line to get even a 12-12 tie in such a case. A tie vote is sufficient to block committee action.

2 Escaped Russian
Fliers Make Tour
Of Virginia Sights

Lexington, Va., Feb. 5.—(AP)—The two escaped Russian fliers on a tour of Virginia for a personal view of the Democratic scene—American style—wound up their first day of sightseeing tonight at a basketball game at Washington and Lee University.

It was a full day for Peter Pirogov and Anatol Barsov, as they headed for a night's rest at Roanoke.

Starting at Richmond at mid-morning, the fliers saw a variety of sights — from department store manikins to the mountains. These terminal views were interrupted by stop-overs for ice-cream in a Buckingham country store and a luncheon at a natural bridge.

The Russians came here after flying over the Iron Curtain last October into the American zone of Austria.

What Pirogov and Barsov found most impressive was the amount of consumer goods that could be bought. They marveled at the array of merchandise in a Richmond department store, where they saw live models parading and received free shirts.

AFL Agrees To Go Along With CIO In Global Federation

Miami, Fla., Feb. 5.—(AP)—The American Federation of Labor agreed today for the first time to share membership with the CIO in a new global federation of labor.

Hailing the CIO's recent severance from the World Federation of Trade Unions, the AFL's executive council said it is ready to start discussions with the CIO and non-Communist trade union movements of other nations to form a new international body.

Willingness to go into such a group on the basis of equality with the CIO is a departure from a long-standing AFL policy. In the past it always insisted on being the sole American labor organization to represent U.S. workers in international labor affairs.

The British Trade Union Congress and the Dutch labor organization recently joined the CIO in pulling out of the WFTU. The AFL never joined it and the council's statement today said the WFTU now "can no longer even pretend to speak for world labor."

ALEXANDER WOMEN PLAN
'CANCER' DISCUSSION
"Cancer" will be the subject of the Alexander Women's club meeting Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Smith of Alexander. Miss Amelia DeMotte will speak on "Cancer," and Mrs. Edith Leeper, county health nurse, will show a movie on the same subject.

ECA Clears 3 Nations
In Metal Trade Fraud

Washington, Feb. 6.—(AP)—The economic cooperation administration today cleared England, Belgium and Holland of "any improprieties" in shipping aluminum and lead here while receiving scarce metals of that kind under the Marshall plan.

The report created some new mysteries as it cleared up old ones concerning the source of suddenly increased foreign metal shipments to American scrap buyers after ECA cargoes began to move last spring.

ECA also affirmed its intention of ending a mission abroad to discover Europe's "minimum" needs for aluminum. It said plans will be worked out to minimize the European drain on North and South American lead supplies.

The report was issued by deputy administrator Howard Bruce, who started the controversy two months ago by saying that the three countries were shipping above normal supplies of the metals for sale here at high prices. He asked them that the increase be explained or "brought into complete control."

The new statement, besides stating that there were "no improprieties on the part of the three governments involved," underscored this point:

"No evidence was found to indicate that any of the three countries was shipping back to the United States aluminum or lead, for import of which had been financed by ECA."

Today's long statement said a joint investigation showed that "a substantial" part—more than half—of the supposed British and Dutch shipments were actually "in-transit" shipments which had originated elsewhere and merely passed through those countries.

The "elsewhere" in some cases were Switzerland or Egypt—except, ECA said, for indications that the metal from Switzerland did not really originate there but was even "in transit." Swiss records show very little aluminum exports to the United States.

Most of the rest of the British aluminum shipments entered the United States as scrap but left England as something else—surplus manufactured aluminum products.

England classifies scrap differently from the United States. In some cases, ECA said, unused products were sent with instructions that they be "mutilated under customs supervision" so they could enter this country as scrap.

Reds: 'Death For Cardinal'

Mindszenty Hopes Verdict Makes Peace

Budapest, Hungary, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, aware the prosecution has demanded his death, asked tonight that God grant guidance to his judges so their verdict will help promote peace between church and state.

He also besought the love of the Roman Catholic church for the Communist-dominated Hungarian state which is trying him on treason charges.

"May the Lord give wisdom to the court, when they pass their sentence, which may help a settlement at home and abroad," the slender Roman Catholic primate said in his final plea.

Earlier Prosecutor Gyula Elapi called for a verdict "hard and inexorable"—death on the gallows—for Cardinal Mindszenty and his six co-defendants. Defense pleas were entered for "leniency, and a wise decision." In addition to treason, all are accused of espionage and illegal money dealings.

Presiding Judge Vilmos Olthay adjourned the trial tonight until 9 a.m. (2 a.m. CST) Tuesday, when the verdicts will be announced.

Cardinal Mindszenty made a 15-minute appeal to the court.

He said he had been held more than 40 days by the police and the court.

"They ask me (questions) and I answer," he said.

"The questions and the answers are not only for those who question me, but in the meantime the man also gives an answer for his own soul."

From these answers which I give myself, I can draw the conclusion that I did not lose my good will in the course of my life and I am thankful for that to my God."

Retreats Conflict
The cardinal said again he regretted past conflict with Hungarian laws.

Referring to Hungarian land law revisions of 1945, the cardinal pointed out the bench of Hungarian bishops blessed the peasants given property from large estates and has said repeatedly the Catholic church would never ask for return of confiscated acres.

"I am thankful to my God that, according to my severe conscience, I am not an enemy of peace," the cardinal said. "I had never been against peace. I only pointed out emphatically certain preliminary conditions in the interest of a long and lasting (church-state) peace."

He said he had confessed already that "I came into conflict with the laws of the state in certain things concerning finances."

"I have already offered restitution. That is my earnest wish."

Prays For Peace
"I prayed this morning to my Lord and asked for peace in these heavy days. I brought the love of my church to this courtroom, and I beg for this love for the Hungarian state, to which I have shown obedience here."

"I also beg for this love for myself and the Lord give wisdom to the court, when they pass their sentence, which may help a settlement at home and abroad."

Prosecutor Elapi denounced reports abroad that admissions of the defendants were extorted by drugs or torture. He declared all were guilty.

The verdict should stigmatize the traitors," he said. "It should be hard and inexorable."

Kicko Leads Final Pleas
Cardinal Mindszenty's lawyer, Kalman Kicko, led off final pleas for the defense before the five judges of the people's court with a reminder: "All of you in this courtroom will likely be mentioned in world history and your deeds will be judged through the next century." One by one, the other pleas followed.

The Vatican newspaper L'Osservatore Romano pictured Cardinal Mindszenty as oppressed, depressed and exhausted. It said the church gives no credence to the "mechanical gesture" of the trial and again declared the hearing had not produced credible confessions. The newspaper condemned what it called the "moral and physical torture chamber" of Hungary's Communist regime.

The Vatican City radio, which is broadcasting material on the trial, protested "disturbances on the Vatican wavelengths during broadcasts in foreign languages" and blamed eastern powers. It said they fear spreading of the real truth about the case.

BUREAU CHIEF NAMES
MEREDOSIA PHYSICIAN
Bureau Chief George Howard of the Federal Narcotics Bureau in Springfield announced Saturday that Dr. Lois Nebille of Meredosia was the physician who signed the prescription presented by James Madison of Beardstown when he was arrested on a narcotics charge in Taylorville Monday.

Holds Flashlight
For Light As Baby
Is Born In Auto

Pittsburgh, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Charles Hines, 20-year-old suburban Carnegie woman, held a flashlight for a physician who delivered her first baby tonight in the family auto.

Hines was driving his wife to Haddon maternity hospital when it became apparent the stork was winning the race. He spotted a doctor's office and pulled to the curb.

Dr. Stanley P. Balcerzak wasn't in but his receptionist put in a hurried phone call for him. Five minutes after he arrived, a 6-pound, 12-ounce girl was born into the auto with Mrs. Hines' flashlight furnishing the only illumination. Hines resumed the trip to the hospital, this time with a police escort. Hospital officials said the tot and Mrs. Hines "are doing just fine."

USSR Offers Pact Of Non-Aggression To Norwegians

London, Sunday, Feb. 6.—(AP)—Russia offered a non-aggression pact to Norway today after tacitly warning the Scandinavian country against joining an Atlantic pact with the United States and western Europe.

The Soviet ambassador to Norway handed Dr. Halvard Lange, Norwegian foreign minister, a note yesterday containing the offer, the Moscow radio said in a broadcast heard in London.

On Jan. 29 Russia asked Norway's attitude toward the Atlantic pact, pointing out that the two countries had a common frontier. Norway's reply was made Feb. 1.

The latest Russian note said the Soviet Union could not agree with Norway that the Atlantic pact would meet the aims of the United Nations.

Russia also declared Norway "failed to give a clear reply" as to whether Norway would permit foreign bases to be established on Norwegian territory.

Li Says Commies
Answer Proposals
For China Peace

Nanking, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Close associates of acting President Li Tsung-jen said tonight the communists had answered his proposals for ending China's civil war.

They gave no details, however. There was nothing from any other quarter to indicate the communists had in any way receded from their demands amounting to unconditional surrender of the government.

In fact, a communist broadcast, heard later in San Francisco by the Associated Press, questioned whether a government still existed and heaped new abuse on the peace-seekers. This tended to support a strong hint from communist-ruled Peiping that the Reds would have no dealings with the government but would treat with "the Chinese people."

Li's associates said they nevertheless believed "at least the first step towards opening formal negotiations" had been taken. They evidently were more optimistic than they had been before. This led to unsupported speculation that perhaps Li had found some way of direct communication with the Reds instead of the monthlong, general wrangle by open radio broadcasts.

U.N. States World
Economic Status
Generally Better

Lake Success, Feb. 5.—(AP)—The United Nations reported tonight a general improvement in the world economic situation.

A new economic survey said food production increased sharply in 1948, more industrial goods were turned out and international trade was better. It also said there were signs inflationary prices are beginning to drop in some countries.

The 52-page report was prepared for the economic and social council, which opens its eighth session here Monday.

As in previous U.N. economic studies, there was not much information on Russia and her satellites. The report did state, however, that expansion of production in Russia was one of the chief factors in increased world production last year.

In fact, it was reported that Russia and some other countries which do not receive Marshall plan aid showed a greater increase in production than some of the western European countries. Italy, for example, showed a slight decline in industrial output, while Poland reported a gain of more than 25 per cent over her 1947 production.

HELD FOR QUESTIONING
Monticello, Mo., Feb. 5.—(AP)—Mrs. Earl Runner, 42, is held for questioning at the Lewis county jail here following the shotgun killing last night of her husband at their near-by Canton, Mo., home.

Runner was shot in the abdomen.

First Signs Of Check
In Wage Hikes Appear

New York, Feb. 5.—(AP)—The first solid signs of a check in labor's steady drive for higher wages appeared—perhaps significantly—this week.

They may forecast the end of a fairly steady 15-year climb in industrial wages.

In the woolen textile industry two large groups of CIO and AFL workers were denied 10-cents-an-hour wage increases by arbiters who ruled the time had come when the business could not support the higher pay.

Earlier, on January 17, a group of cotton textile workers received a similar setback.

The textile industry was the first major business to enter a postwar readjustment and the buyer's market.

And industrialists and labor chiefs are wondering whether workers in other industries may soon run into the same wall as the buyer's market spreads.

The problem is this: when the public stops buying because demands are met or because prices are too high, can wages continue their steady climb that began in the mid-1930's?

Stock Prices Still Tumble

Market Value Drops Billion Dollars In Day

Chicago, Feb. 5.—(AP)—Prices of stocks, cotton, lard and some other commodities tumbled again today, continuing a trend which started earlier in the week. Market value of all stocks dropped more than a billion dollars today.

Stocks in New York fell again in the sharpest loss since the day after the presidential election. Declines ran from a few cents to more than $3, in the wake of extreme losses of $5 yesterday. Many issues hit new lows for the past year or longer periods.

On Friday $800,000,000 was chopped off the market value of all shares. Today an additional $1,200,000,000 was lopped off.

Nails Down Decline
Action of stocks nailed down a general decline which began in such basic commodities as grain, livestock, butter, eggs and cotton. It is a decline which has been going on for several months, but which picked up momentum in the present week.

Drops in commodity prices had a repetitious appearance, for it was just one year ago this week that the big post-war break hit grains and spread to other commodities.

The one big difference from last year was that this time the price slump came from levels which, to begin with, were lower than in 1948. Nor were the declines as sharp as last year.

Also, last year prices were far above the points at which the government was pledged to step in and support the market. This year prices of some commodities, particularly grains, had slipped through that support level as if it didn't exist.

Support Prices Too High
And, as one grain trader expressed it today, there was some feeling that in trying to support prices at higher levels than ever before "the government may have bitten off more than it can chew."

Some reassuring words for farmers came from Secretary of Agriculture C. D. Tamm, when he said, "I don't really think this is the beginning of any drastic downward trend." At the week end Dr. Edwin G. Nourse, chairman of the president's economic council, said, "These months are very decisive months and anyone who has responsibility is watching things closely."

Many markets were closed today, but there were enough open to send the Associated Press index of 35 wholesale commodity prices to a new two-year low at 16.95. That compared with 17.97 a month ago and 19.08 a year ago.

Cotton Causes Excitement
Most of the excitement in commodities today came in cotton at New York and New Orleans. Futures at New York suffered their heaviest losses in many weeks on the largest Saturday trade since Saturday dealings were resumed last summer. Final prices were 95 cents to $1.30 a bale lower.

Losses in cotton came despite large supplies on this commodity being sold under the government price control support program. News that prices of print cloth had declined late yesterday helped along the selling in cotton.

Fats and oils prices also weakened. All cottonseed oil futures at New York and lard futures at Chicago made new lows since trading in the various contracts started. Loose lard was offered at $12.00 a hundred pounds in Chicago, unchanged from the six-year low made yesterday.

Tying in with the fats and oil prices slump, a leading manufacturer of oleomargarine reduced prices two cents a pound at the wholesale level. It was the second such price cut this year.

NO TELEVISION IN AUTOMOBILES
The National Committee for Traffic Safety has appealed to all state legislatures to pass laws barring television in automobiles.
This would seem to be a most important safety measure.
Legislation outlawing vehicle video already has been introduced in eight legislatures, according to Paul H. Blaisdell, committee director. They are Connecticut, Massachusetts, New York, Rhode Island, New Jersey, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin.
A bill introduced in the Indiana legislature would ban a television screen which can be viewed by the driver.
The high toll of traffic deaths indicates the driver needs to keep his mind on his driving, Blaisdell said, "but even more he needs to keep his eyes on the road."
Blaisdell said as far as he knew no automobile manufacturer was installing sets but "some individuals already have made installations."

Vows of marriage were exchanged by Miss Donna Moore and William A. Yording in a pretty wedding ceremony which took place Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at the Church of Our Saviour.
The Rev. Father Raymond Franz officiated at the double ring service performed before an altar banked with ferns and iris, and was also celebrant of the nuptial Mass which followed. Servers for the Mass were Walter Lonergan and Jack Gruber. Appropriate wedding selections were played by Mrs. Alta Eisch, church organist.
The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Mary Moore, 210 North Prairie street, and Walter Moore of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Yording, 615 East Douglas avenue, are the bridegroom's parents.
The attendants were Barbara Jean Shanahan, niece of the bridegroom, as junior bridesmaid, Mrs. Bernard Shanahan, sister of the bridegroom, as matron of honor, and the bridegroom's brother, Jack Yording, as best man. Robert Roach and Bernard Shanahan served as ushers.
Bride Wears White
The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a gown of white tulle and lace with a shadow-sheer yoke of net, Bertha neckline, long pointed sleeves and enfanta styling at the waistline. The flowing skirt was made of tulle. Held in place with a band of seed pearls, the cathedral-length veil was of illusion tulle, bordered with imported lace. The bridal bouquet was of calla lilies.
Reception Follows
Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the banquet room of the Dunlap hotel. Over 150 guests attended. Assisting with the serving were Mary Lou White, Fannie Reinert and Mrs. Robert Roach.
The couple then left on a wedding trip through the south. For traveling the bride chose a navy ensemble accented with gray accessories and a corsage of gardenias and roses.
Mrs. Yording was graduated from Jacksonville High school and is now employed at the Elliott State bank. Her husband, a graduate of Route High school, is employed at Yording's service station. The couple will reside at 210 North Prairie street.

Brushing Teeth, Fruit Diet Will Combat Decay

(One of a series prepared by the Morgan County Dental Society.)

February 7 of this year and the first Monday in February of each following year have been proclaimed "National Children's Dental Health Day" by the American Dental Association and the Illinois State Dental Society, with the approval of the Councils of Dental Health throughout the United States. It is only through improving the dental health of our children that dentistry can hope to succeed in its fight against tooth decay and all of the resultant complications.

A child's development is an image in reflection of his home life. He follows the footsteps of his mother and father with surprising accuracy. The home can be just as important as the dental office and the school-room in guiding a child towards a healthy mouth. A well-informed parent can do much in helping the dentist stop a large percentage of tooth decay. This, in turn, will reduce costly dental bills and improve the health and appearance of our children.

It has been previously stated that to prevent tooth decay it is necessary to prevent acids from forming or to neutralize them before damage is done. More success in the control of dental caries has been obtained experimentally by preventing the acids from forming. One obvious way of preventing acid formation is to avoid eating sugar and sweets. The average American consumes 136 pounds of sugar per year. Here is the reason for so many unhealthy mouths.

Just how much sugar is contained in some of our popular foods? The average five-cent candy bar contains seven tea-spoonfuls of sugar. A stick of chewing gum contains one-half teaspoonful of sugar. The average portion of a two-layer chocolate cake with icing (one-twelfth cake) contains fifteen teaspoonfuls of sugar. The average plain doughnut (three inches in diameter) contains four teaspoonfuls of sugar. One-eighth of a quart of ice cream contains five to six teaspoonfuls of sugar. One-sixth of a medium cherry pie contains fourteen teaspoonfuls of sugar. It is impossible with our present day diet to stop dental decay. We must change our eating habits to a lower sugar diet with an abundance of fresh fruits and vegetables. The fresh fruits and vegetables will improve the quality of saliva. This improved saliva is much more able to combat mouth acids, and, if one must eat sugar and sweets, cleaning the mouth before acids can form would be of benefit. This may be done by brushing the teeth or vigorously washing the mouth immediately after eating, and especially after eating something sweet. Too many people fail to cleanse the teeth immediately after meals, and this explains, in part, why mouth hygiene has apparently failed in preventing tooth decay. A simple mouth rinse at the table is of some help and can be employed to advantage, even though it violates accepted rules of table etiquette.

Children should be taught not to eat sweets between meals and to eat all that is desired at the three regular meals. First eat what the body needs, then eat what you want. If this rule is followed and if the

The Magic of America

Americans tend to overlook the fact that telephone development here per hundred people is by far the highest in the world. In Jacksonville, although we still have some individuals awaiting installation of telephone service, we have better than normal telephone development. And this telephone development is outstanding when you consider that taxes of the industry are more than other businesses—we'll above one-third of what you pay going to direct taxes.

Woman's Club To Hold Colonial Tea Feb. 12

A colonial tea will be held by the Jacksonville Woman's club on Saturday, Feb. 12, at 2:30 p. m. in the banquet room of the Dunlap hotel.

Members of the club are asked to wear colonial fashions, if possible, to lend atmosphere to the event. Dress, however, is optional.

The highlight of the event will be a group of readings by Joyce Lander Johnson, entitled "Dramatic Moments in the Lives of Famous Women."

Mrs. Johnson is a graduate of Illinois College and received her master's degree in speech from the University of Wisconsin. She has taught speech and has been a dramatic coach in a number of high schools and for the past several years has been featured in dramatic interpretations.

She is the daughter of Mrs. Harriett Lander, 622 West State street, and is a descendant of Harriett Beecher Stowe. For her appearance with the local club she will wear a colonial dress of her great great grandmother.

A special musical program has been arranged, consisting of vocal numbers by Miss Elizabeth Nelson and the Woman's club sextette, accompanied by Mrs. G. O. Webster.

Mrs. H. H. Bancroft, Mrs. O. M. Olsen and Miss Olive Burnett will preside at the tea table. Mrs. H. Gary Hudson will act as chairman of the day.

Proceeds of the tea will be used to supplement the Oak Lawn stove fund, a morgan county club project.

A meeting of the executive board will be held in the Farmer's Bank building at 9:45 a. m. Tuesday, with Mrs. Fletcher J. Blackburn, president, presiding.

Stanley Kwiatt Named 'Player Of The Year' Among Deaf Gridders

Chunky Stanley Kwiatt, pile-driver on the turf. Billy Yates, Tiger fullback on Art Yates' highly successful gridiron eleven this past fall has been chosen the 'Player of the Year' among deaf footballers of the nation over. His selection to this top spot among deaf gridders was recently published in 'The Silent Worker' a national magazine for the deaf.

STANLEY KWIATT

The magazine, in choosing the outstanding player, faced a mighty task in screening several hundred fine gridiron warriors in the many deaf schools in the country. The magazine states that to reach a final decision on Kwiatt, it required weeks of research which necessitated the services of air mail, special delivery, and telegraphic consultation with sportsmen in all 48 states. At the final elimination it was young Kwiatt from Illinois who received the nod as the best in the nation.

Halls From Chicago
Stanley is 19 years old, and hails from Chicago. He packs 160 pounds on a 5 ft. 7 in. frame, which makes for plenty of momentum when cracking enemy lines. The fullback averaged a touchdown per game this fall with a total of 52 points scored, and did a wonderful job of backing up his exceptionally light line averaging only 148 pounds.

The Yates' tutored Tiger eleven competed with high schools boasting enrollments from 300 to 1000, while boys eligible to play the gridiron sport at ISD number only about 80. The Tigers won 6 tussles while dropping a single game to the Jacksonville High School Crimson aggregation. They tied a fine Iowa School for the Deaf team at the western field in a game played under strong crosswinds, which stymied the locals passing and punting attacks.

Is Good Pass Receiver
The Billy Yates to Stanley Kwiatt passing combo accounted for many TD's for the ISD bunch this fall. Stanley combined an exceptional ability in the leather snatching department with his other accomplishments.

When football season ends, Kwiatt by no means goes into seclusion for the winter and spring months. He plays a mean guard on the Spike Wilson's basketball outfit, catches in baseball, and runs the distances in track competition. He is a four-letter boy in his last year of athletic competition.

The local school is a member of the Illinois High School Athletic Association as well as the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations and adhere strictly to their rules.

Kwiatt's teammate, Victor Marsala, a guard, was selected to the All American Deaf football team in a previous announcement this winter. The Illinois team ranks fifth in the nation among Deaf institutions.

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK MARKET REPORT

Chicago, Feb. 5—(P)—Livestock prices were steady at the lows for the week, and in some cases for the past two years, at the stockyards today.

Hogs were quoted at a $21.50 top, 50 cents above the low on Jan. 3, which was the lowest price since OPA days. Losses ranged from 25 to 75 cents this week with offerings under 230 pounds declining the most. Larger runs and a slump in wholesale pork caused the decline.

The general steer and heifer market moved to the lowest point since early in 1947. Prices tumbled $1.50 to $2.00, and, once again, it was the choice fed types which encountered most pressure. Steer and heifer beef sank $1.00 to $2.50 in the wholesale trade.

Sheep and lamb prices fell toward the close of the week after showing some firmness early. Final prices were about $1.00 under last week-end.

Murrin Scores For Blueboys

Bob Murrin, lanky Blueboy pivot man, is caught by the cameraman as he nets a bucket for the Miller-men during the I.C.-North Central J.C.I. conference fracas on the I.S.D. floor last Thursday night. Don Rehfeldt, Hilltopper forward, is shown gathering himself for the rebound should his mate fail to connect. The Jo. Central cagers in the shot are Berger, 15; Adams, 8; and Bradish.

This loop fray, which the locals copped by an 86 to 77 margin, gave the Blueboys a tie for top spot in the conference heap with Ill. Wesleyan. However the Titans met and defeated No. Central the following night, and regained their lead with a 5-1 standing in league play. The Hilltoppers are the only conference five to top the loop leaders. They edged the Wesleyan bunch 67 to 64 the night before they bumped into No. Central. DePauw University is the only team that has whipped the Titans to date this season.

The Miller tutored locals lads have a season's record of 12 victories and 5 losses. They travel to Lake Forest Feb. 10 for another C.C.I. tilt.

Ohio State Upsets Minnesota 48-39

Columbus, O., Feb. 5—(P)—Ohio State's basketball team upset Minnesota, Big Nine leader, 48 to 39 tonight. It was the fourth victory for the Bucks in seven starts in conference play, and the second defeat for Minnesota against six wins.

The Buckeyes achieved their upset before a crowd of 7,078 fans at the coliseum. They outplayed a tough Minnesota team in every department and at the intermission held a 29 to 23 edge over the visitors.

The Bucks dominated the whole first half, with the possible exception of one short stretch late in the period when the Gophers dropped in eight straight points to pull up from 12-24 to 20-24.

The Gophers came back strong in the second half and for a time it appeared they would hold the upper hand. They sliced the Buck margin to 31-29 with less than four minutes gone, thanks to two fielders by Guard Jerry Mitchell. The score continued to 35-33—Ohio State. That was the closest Minnesota ever got again to the lead.

Ohio State continued "hot" on its shooting—potting 21 of 71 tries, while the Gophers hit 17 out of 62.

Oddly enough, the Bucks showed strongest in two departments in which they had been far less than sensational previously. Minnesota's 39 points constituted the Bucks' finest defensive effort of the year—and by coincidence it came against the No. 1 defensive team in the conference.

The ocean sunfish, which attains a weight of one ton, is no larger than a pinhead when young.

Illini Take Lead In Big-Nine Loop; Whip Wisconsin 61-54

Madison, Wis., Feb. 5—(P)—Illinois took over undisputed first place in the Big Nine's basketball race tonight by defeating Wisconsin, 61-54, before 13,500 fans in the Badger fieldhouse.

The Illini dropped in 24 of their 74 field goal tries to win their fifth conference victory in six starts and their 14th triumph of the season in 16 games.

The first half was tight, with the score standing tied four times. Don Rehfeldt, Wisconsin center, put in 11 points and Doug Rogers added eight more to pace the Badgers to a 29-28 halftime advantage.

Don Sunderlage, substitute Illinois guard, added five points to a second half drive that put the Illini ahead, 39-31, after which the teams fought on even terms.

Burdette Thurlby, Illinois guard who has declared ineligible two weeks ago, added 11 second half points in his last game of the season for the Illini.

Rehfeldt's 20 points were high for the night, while Jim Marks topped Illinois with 13.

The game marked Wisconsin's fourth loss in five Big Nine starts.

New York Stock Market

New York, Feb. 5—(P)—A new selling attack walloped the stock market today following Friday's drop.

Losses of fractions to as much as 3 points piled up for a wide variety of key issues. Business was unusually fast for Saturday.

Many issues scored new lows for 1948-49, notably in the rail and oil groups. Among them were Standard Oil (N.J.), Texaco Co., Pacific Western Oil, Illinois Central, Baltimore & Ohio, Southern Pacific and N. Y. Central.

Brokerage quarters reported that the current steep slide in commodity prices has created widespread deflationary psychology in the financial district.

In addition, these sources say, many speculators in commodity futures have been forced to raise considerable sums of money to protect their position. Much of the money is coming from these "emergency" sales of stock.

Among the widest losers were U. S. Steel, National Steel, General Motors, Goodrich, Montgomery Ward, J. I. Case, Kennecott Copper and U. S. Gypsum.

Bonds turned down with stocks but declines were limited.

Grains Show Signs Of Resistance To General Selling

Chicago, Feb. 5—(P)—Grains today wound up a hectic week by displaying, here and there, some signs of resistance to general selling. Trading was active and the market nervous. The direction of the market frequently shifted.

At one time all corn, soybeans, rye and hard futures made new seasonal lows, as did July and September wheat. At the lows, all wheat contracts except May were selling under $2.00. May oats touched its previous low, but did not go under it.

In general, oats showed some underlying strength. Lard provided a contrast with oats. Yesterday lard had held above seasonal lows made earlier in the week, but today it went through that level shortly after the opening.

The market's slump brought a good deal of cash corn out of the country. Bookings were placed at around 150,000 bushels. In the spot market, No. 2 yellow corn sold at $1.23 1/2, which compares with an estimated government support level here or around $1.56 to $1.58.

Wheat closed 1/2 to 1 cent higher. May $2.17 1/2-$2.18, corn was 1/2 lower to 1 cent higher, May $1.27 1/2-1, oats were 1/2 higher, May $1.71-1, rye was 4 to 4 1/2 lower, May $1.31-$1.30, soybeans were 1/2 to 1 cent lower, March $2.30-$2.30, and lard was 32 to 40 cents a hundred pounds lower, March $12.90-$12.92.

Receipts of grain in cars here today: wheat 10; corn 176; oats 6; rye none; barley 10 and soybeans 3.

Six Teams Entered In DP Invitational Basketball Tourney

Merle Wade's David Prince Junior High school cagers will play host to an invitational grade school basketball tournament starting Wednesday, Feb. 9, and continuing through Friday, Feb. 11.

Six teams are entered in the meet, which had been designed for eight participants. Wade rated the teams, according to season records, and then pitted the two Jacksonville fives, DP and ISD against Mt. Sterling and Roodhouse in the only two first round contests—giving Winchester and Taylorville, the other two teams entered, first round byes.

First Game At 6:45 P.M.
The vent, which is being sponsored by the Journal-Courier in conjunction with the local school, will get underway at 6:45 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday nights, with the second game starting at 7:45. Friday evening, the consolation bout will begin at 7 while the championship go is slated for 8 p.m.

Winchester Undeclared

The Winchester graders boast the only undefeated record in the match. However, they have met only one team in the tournament, Roodhouse, and their power cannot be judged accurately when stacked up against such teams as DP, Taylorville and ISD.

Sorrells and Sherwood, local officials, will referee every game in the tourney, which is being staged at the David Prince gymnasium.

Trophies for first, second and third place winners were purchased by the Jacksonville Journal-Courier Co.

MEDICIMEMORIAL PLANNED Florence—(P)—The town council decided recently to commemorate the fifth anniversary of Lorenzo Del Medici's birth, with an exhibition of fine arts pieces and books of his times.

Lorenzo Del Medici, known as "Il Magnifico," was born here Jan. 1, 1449. During his period flourished some of Italy's greatest artists—Leonardo Da Vinci, painter Sandro Botticelli, writer Luigi Pulci and other famed artists like Verrocchio, Pollaiuolo, and Gualiano Da Mainano. Young Michelangelo was educated at Lorenzo's court.

Il Magnifico died the year of the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus.

POP Goes the QUEEN

By Bob Wade and Bill Miller

THE STORY: John Henry and Sin Conover, who show winners of an expensive-paid work at a swank California resort, are visited by an armed man who tells them in their cotage for dinner. The man, Homer Anglin, leaves after saying he made a mistake. While dining at the ship of the desert, an exclusive cafe where waiters are in Arab costume, John Henry receives a Queen of Diamonds instead of a check. On the card in written, "Your deal." Johnny demands an explanation from Mr. Barselou, owner of the cafe, who questions him closely and then says the card was "a joke intended for somebody else." But Johnny wants to find the waiter and goes in search of him. His search leads to the kitchen.

VI

JOHN HENRY thought the alley had exploded. He had just swung open the kitchen door of the Ship of the Desert, letting a dammed-up flood of bluish-white light into the dimly-lit passage outside. There was barely time enough to recognize the weather-beaten prowler in the doorway when the man was driven violently against him, staggering him. Then he realized all the noise had been a gunshot.

Sin screamed and jumped forward to grab his coat. "Johnny, Johnny, you are all right! Johnny—"

"Okay, honey," automatically, he held up the leather-jacketed body by its armpits. He couldn't see anything in the gloom. Dying away in the distance, he could hear the sound of footsteps, running.

Barselou brushed past him into the alley. John Henry felt a shudder go through the figure in his arms. Sin was sucking in her breath noisily and staring cloudily at the man.

"Isn't there something—he's hurt—"

Witness had dyed a somber circle on the back of the leather jacket. The circle spread. The man twisted his head and sighted painfully up at him. He squinted his foggy eyes. They cleared momentarily and recognition showed there. A gasp was born in his throat. John Henry bent over him to catch the words.

Under this impact, the becalmed

"You already got it," the man choked. "Don't—" Tears flooded in agony and then the head lolled helplessly. John Henry straightened, frowning. His wife was frantically clearing pots and pans off a low wooden table, preparatory to using it as a bed for the wounded man.

"Sin," John Henry said quietly. "Never mind."

"Another heavy pot clanged to the floor. Sin fastened blank eyes on him and Conover shook his head gently.

"Oh, Johnny—" "Dead?" Barselou threw the brutal syllable from the doorway where he scanned the body narrowly.

"Think so—or close to it." Together, the two men eased the flaccid form to the linoleum under the fluorescent kitchen lights. John Henry suggested over his shoulder that Sin go out to the dining room, but she stood unmoving by the wooden table, hypnotized by the scene. Barselou's big hand rested lightly on the man's sunburned wrist. Then he got up, grunting. John Henry did the same and for the first time saw the silent spectators. The great kitchen was packed with white-shrouded cooks and helpers, robed waiters and, crowding through the swinging doors, was the orchestra, one or two members holding their instruments protectively.

The headwaiter was as white as his Foreign Legion trousers. Barselou lashed at him. "Phone Lieutenant Lay, down at the police station. Get your people out on the floor. We're still open for business. Musicians, get that music going. Waiters, your place is with the customers. Come on, now—let's move!"

Under this impact, the becalmed

Ship of the Desert creaked, stirred and got under way again. The waiters and musicians faded away and the cooks bobbed their round hats over stoves and assembly tables, with only occasional surreptitious glances at the dead man.

JOHN HENRY, his comforting arm around Sin's shoulders, had turned her away from the morbid view. "There, there, honey. Everything's all right now." Her eyes were less shocked but her tan face still picked up some of the green from her dress.

Barselou paced the narrow aisle between table and alley exit, his face uncivilized and angry. He pulled up by the Conovers and his voice was barely controlled thunder. "What do you know about this man?"

John Henry answered him slowly, trying to look surprised. "Nothing, I never saw him before in my life." He canceled Sin's astonished objections by squeezing her waist.

"He knew you."

"I wouldn't say that. He fell in to my arms, that's all. He didn't know I was going to open the door."

Barselou's colorless eyes blazed at Conover's innocent expression. He moved his lips a couple of times and then said softly, "All right—you don't know him."

"Maybe it was a holdup that went wrong," John Henry suggested. "Too bad he didn't get a chance to talk."

Then Sin protested, "But, honey—he did say something to you!" and Conover's warning squeeze came too late. It only made his wife gasp.

Barselou hunched his wide shoulders forward and his face glowed. "So he said something to you!"

"Well," said John Henry, "he tried to say something, but he couldn't quite make it. Too bad, too—it might have cleared the whole thing up."

"A pity," agreed Barselou but none of the grim fervor left his expression. "It might have made things easier for everybody."

February Sign-Up Time For '49 Farm Program

TO SPEAK TUESDAY

The Rev. Richard Paul Graebel, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Springfield, will give the address at the Illinois College "Founders' Day" program in Jones Chapel at 10:45 a. m. Tuesday. He will speak on "Education for De-feat."

Dr. Graebel received his B. A. degree from the University of Wisconsin and was a graduate student at Columbia University and the University of Heidelberg. He graduated from the McCormick Theological Seminary in 1936 and was awarded the degree of Doctor of Divinity by Parsons College in 1941.

He is a frequent contributor to religious and musical journals. He has held pastorates at the First Presbyterian Church of Polo, Ill., and Ottumwa, Iowa, and has been pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Springfield since 1916.

The farm sign-up campaign under the 1949 ACP program will soon be in full swing.

"This is the period," explained Wallace T. Hembrough, chairman of the Morgan county AAA committee, "during which farmers make known their requests for program assistance for carrying out approved soil conservation measures on their land."

In order to be eligible for this assistance it is definitely required that a farm worksheet be properly filled in by the farm owner or operator. This is the work that is now being done, and it is intended that during the next several weeks that every farmer in the county will have an opportunity to register his request.

In order to expedite this procedure, Mr. Hembrough pointed out that the farmers of a given community are asked to call at the county office on certain days. "Due notice will be given, either by card or through the press, so that farmers will be fully aware of the time that they should meet with the county committee for this purpose."

The committee made it clear that these were not hard and fast arbitrary dates, but he did ask farmers to follow through on them as much as possible.

The additional funds available for program payments and several new operations features of the 1949 program are stimulating a lot of interest among farmers. "This," said Mr. Hembrough, "is particularly true of the sod waterway practice. This is the one practice which has been singled out for special emphasis during the coming year. The payment is particularly attractive and there is assurance that there will be plenty of technical assistance available to help lay out the waterway."

The committee suggested that all farmers survey their conservation needs, particularly waterways, before coming in to sign up the farm in the program. "This is the year," he said, "to convert ditches and gullies into good drained drainways."

Variety Of Practices
Practices available for Morgan county are constructing and establishing sod waterways, contouring, terracing, pasture establishment or improvement, green manure crops, water channel flumes or ditches and outlets, limestone and fertilizers.

Township meetings scheduled at the AAA Office are as follows:
Townships 13-8 and 13-9, Feb. 7-8; Townships 13-10 and 14-8, Feb. 9-10; Townships 14-9 and 14-10, Feb. 10-11; Townships 14-11 and 15-8, Feb. 14-15; Townships 15-9 and 15-10, Feb. 16-17.

Townships 15-11 and 15-12, Feb. 17-18; Townships 16-8 and 16-9, Feb. 21-23; Townships 16-10 and 16-11, Feb. 23-24; Townships 16-12 and 16-13, Feb. 24-25.

Waverly Couple United Saturday

Waverly — Miss Jeanette Meiers became the bride of Stanley Timmons in a single ring ceremony held at 2 p. m. Saturday. The wedding took place in the Methodist parsonage with the Reverend Bronson Smith officiating.

The bride wore a gray suit, complemented with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Meiers of Waverly. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Timmons of Waverly.

The couple were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Stewart, sister and brother-in-law of the bride. For her sister's wedding Mrs. Stewart wore a navy blue dress and pink shoes.

The bride is a graduate of the Waverly High School with the class of 1947. Her husband attended the same school and graduated in 1944. He served in the navy during the war and is now employed at Allis-Chalmers in Springfield.

The couple will make their home in Waverly.

DOLLAR DAY IN JACKSONVILLE

The oft-repeated gripe that "a dollar doesn't buy much any more" will encounter a sharp denial in Jacksonville next Tuesday, Feb. 8.

Dollar Day will be sponsored by a large number of Jacksonville business firms cooperating with the Retail Council of the Chamber of Commerce. Anyone who has shopped here on previous Dollar Days knows that bonafide savings are possible—that thrift and Dollar Day go hand-in-hand.

Merchants have been stocking heavily for the mid-winter sales event. The public has been handicapped in its regular buying habits during the past couple of weeks by icy highways and difficult traveling conditions. In fact, many have "put off" buying merchandise because of inclement weather. So the approach of Dollar Day seems cut out especially for them. People who need merchandise because they haven't been able to get around freely are going to get a break Tuesday in the matter of prices and wide selection.

Shopping in Jacksonville offers many advantages, as thousands have learned from experience. The business district is compact—shoppers don't have to go a mile or two between their favorite stores as they do in larger population centers.

Merchandise offered in Jacksonville stores is dependable—the store proprietors and clerks are dependable—high pressure or cutthroat methods have no part in development of this city as a popular shopping center. Buyers do business with confidence.

Shoppers here Tuesday will find many bargains for $1. On larger articles of merchandise they will find prices scaled remarkably low for the Dollar Day sale. Get in on the bargains Tuesday. Your dollars will carry a real wallop, and you will get good merchandise from reputable merchants who want to serve you year after year.

Women Hear Report On The Near East

"The Near East nations are important new nations, they are here to stay, they have come far in a short time. Peace loving nations must help them develop themselves for the defenses of peace are built in the minds of men."

This was the theme of the talk given by Mrs. Quincy Wright as the luncheon held jointly by the AAUW and the League of Women Voters Saturday noon. Mrs. John Agger presided at the luncheon meeting, and Mrs. Lawrence Paset introduced the speaker.

Mrs. Wright suggested that the United States feels less sympathetic towards the nations of the Near East, Palestine and the Arab nations, than those of the Far East, China and surrounding countries, and probably knows less about them. As a result, we are slower to act in their interest and harder to arouse to action. Yet to illustrate this rapid progress, she compared her personal observations of women made on different trips to the Near East. Twenty years ago the women were veiled and kept in seclusion; at the recent UNESCO conference in Beirut the majority of women representatives were from the Arab world. These women wondered why more US women were not acting as delegates.

Three factors were enumerated by Mrs. Wright as causing the rapid development of the Near East: the Zionists' ambition for Palestine and their work in her behalf, the discovery of oil in Iraq which made the area of economic significance, and the events of World War II where the geographic location of this area made it of military importance.

Mrs. Wright briefly touched on significant characteristics of the Arab nations, Syria, Lebanon, Egypt, Iraq, Trans-Jordan, and Saudi Arabia, pointing out their lack of unity and their variation in needs. Their common characteristics included wide divergence in the economic status of the inhabitants and their great need for education. They have a great common loyalty for each other as is shown in a united front towards the rest of the nations. This is consistently evidenced in their voting as a bloc in the General Assembly of the United Nations.

Israel, on the other hand, can only feel a warm appreciation toward the United States, for the Israeli government has established itself largely through the aid of American citizens.

Farm Journal Writer Finds Best Hog Men 'Right Here'

A farm journalist from Philadelphia, Pa., was in Morgan county Saturday, questioning representative breeders in an attempt to ascertain their methods of pork production. This information will appear later in the Farm Journal, national rural magazine.

Claude Gifford, the writer, said he had been assigned to prepare an article on successful swine raising. A study of production records indicated Morgan and Sangamon counties were apparent tops in the nation.

"So I'm here to interview a half-dozen farmers in each county, study their methods and pass along to our readers whatever I learn," he said. Gifford talked with Sangamon county men Friday.

Although he asked about nearly every phase of pork raising, he was particularly interested in how the Morgan men managed to save such a high percentage of pigs per litter. This figure often means the difference between a profit or a loss, particularly when hogs are selling at low prices.

Gifford was accompanied by Farm Adviser E. H. Garlich. Farmers tabbed for interviews were rather reluctant to talk at first, asserting with truthful modesty that "some of my neighbors are better hog raisers than I am." But they discussed their own practices, answering questions on breed preferences, cross-breeding experiences, housing, care at farrowing time, sanitation problems, pasture, rations, water, proper exercise, diseases, protein and mineral supplements and a myriad of other queries.

The writer interviewed Rollin (Pepper) Martin of the Litterberry community, Paul Johnson of Ashland, Lester Martin of Alexander, Charles J. Williamson of Jacksonville and Edwin A. Gordon of Franklin.
